Country Superstar Joe Nichols Joins “The Gridiron Greats Super Jam”

Country and Rock Legends Will Perform Together on One Stage

Scottsdale, AZ –January 24, 2008 – Dmytro Development, LLC, Arizona’s #1 Green Developer, is proud to announce country music superstar Joe Nichols has signed on to join “The Gridiron Greats Super Jam,” a first-of-its-kind joining of the legends of music, creating an exclusive, ticketed event scheduled for Saturday, February 2, 2008 at the Hotel Scottsdale. The event will benefit the Gridiron Greats Assistance Fund.

Nichols has been in the music business for over a decade. The singer/song writer is an Arkansas native, topping the charts in 2003 with his hit “Brokenheartsville,” and has toured with country performers such as Alan Jackson. Now, Nichols is celebrating his 2007 album “Real Things,” considered one of 2007’s best country records.

For one spectacular night only, Nichols will join CMT’s Cowboy Troy, along with other renowned artists of rock, pop and country all coming together on one stage to perform for a once-in-a-lifetime, multi-genre All Star Jam. Confirmed artists include: Pat Travers, Eric Martin (Mr. Big), and Paul Rodgers (Bad Company and Queen). Gridiron Great Kyle Turley of the Kansas City Chiefs will also perform live, with many more artists invited and confirming daily.

Confirmed artists for Saturday's all-star back band include: Johnny Gunn of Eddie Money, Tommy Miller of Gregg Allman & Friends, Donny Baldwin of Jefferson Starship, Steve Salinas of Cold Blood and Dell Bruchette of the Greg Kihn Band. In addition, the stage will feature a special performance from #1 Las Vegas act and premier Scottsdale party band Zowie Bowie.

"People are going to be blown away when they see who's hitting the stage for this party," said legendary rock guitarist Pat Travers. "It's very rare for this type of talent to come together in one place on one night, and we can't wait to take the stage and perform."

"The Gridiron Greats Super Jam" will also feature celebrity host Mike Ditka, board member of the "GGAF" and other NFL Legends from the Gridiron Greats Assistance Fund, a non-profit organization that provides financial assistance to retired NFL players in dire need.

"The Gridiron Greats Super Jam' will be one of the most exciting events to take place during Super Bowl Week," said Chris Burka, CEO of Dmytro Development, LLC. "It's rare to see musicians from different genres take one stage and jam together. This Super Bowl Eve extravaganza is going to be a can't miss event."

Dmytro Development, LLC, a contemporary, functional and environmentally superior development firm is organizing "The Super Jam" in order to bring something special to the region as the community prepares to host the world. Dmytro works to ensure all company projects are designed and built featuring the U.S. Green Building Council's Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design™ (LEED) sustainable rating system. Dmytro has adopted the LEED™ rating as a design requirement for all its commercial building projects.

"The first 'Super Jam' for the Gridiron Greats is set to be a high-octane event," commented Paul Rodgers. "It's an all-star cast from field and stage coming together to have a great night and make some noise!"
